- 3) Within an attached or detached accessory building, the home occupation, home-based business or residential industry shall not exceed fifty (50%) of the gross floor area of the accessory building.
- 4) Under no circumstances shall the existence of a home occupation, home based-business or residential industry change the residential character of the property.

b. On parcels of land greater than 1-acre in size and regardless of the zoning, the home occupation, home-based business or residential industry:

- 1) Up to 3 employees are permitted, in addition to family members who reside on premise.

2. Signage, if any must conform to Section 17.04.770 of this Chapter.
3. No addition, alteration, or remodeling which would change the residential character of the unit.
4. No home occupation, home-based business or residential industry which would or might produce noise, fumes or odor, industry smoke, or electrical disturbance or in any way interfere with the peace, contentment, and general welfare of the area.
5. Prohibited home occupation, home-based business or residential industry include: automotive or equipment repair, automotive body or fender repair, commercial preparation of food for service on the premises, sexually-oriented businesses, liquor sales or distribution, undertaking or funeral homes, medical or dental clinics, businesses related to or involving explosives or highly hazardous substances as defined by NRS 459.9533, or any business activity that is regulated through the Conditional Use Permit Procedures.

11. Home occupation, home-based business and residential industry are assigned to the holder of the home-based business license and are not appurtenant to the land or structure. (Ord. 353, 2008)

SEVERABILITY. If any provision of this ordinance or amendments thereto, or the application to any person, thing or circumstance is held to be invalid, such invalidity shall not affect the validity or provisions or applications of the ordinance or amendments thereto which can be given effect without the invalid provisions or applications, and to this end the provisions of this ordinance and amendments thereto are declared to be severable.

CONSTITUTIONALITY. If any section, clause or phrase of this ordinance shall be declared unconstitutional by a court of competent jurisdiction, the remaining provisions of this ordinance shall continue in full force and effect.
